VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR AWARD NOMINATIONS WANTED

ANTHEM, AZ (April 21, 2008)— Nominations for the 2007 Volunteer of the Year award are now being accepted by the GFWC North Valley Women's Club. The award honors extraordinary community volunteers who have helped improve or promote the general welfare of the North Valley communities. Judging is based on the activity, need, leadership, initiative, and innovation of the nominees.

“It is with great pleasure that we annually recognize the Volunteer of the Year who has given their time and heart so generously to our North Valley communities. The award recipient will receive a $250 check, payable to the charity of their choice and will be the guest of honor at the annual Volunteer of the Year luncheon attended by GFWC members and guests,” said Candace Kelling-Salzler, club President.

A nomination form may be requested by emailing V. Davis at info@gfwnorthvalley.org. The deadline for nominations is May 31, 2008.

Previous Volunteers of the Year have been Donna Kublin, founding President of the Arts Council of the North Valley, Eric Kilstrom, Executive Director of We Care in Anthem, Juereta Smith of the Anthem Rotary and Jack and Judy Maltby, for their countless volunteer hours to the Anthem Posse as well as many other civic organizations.
