GFWC ANTHEM WOMEN'S CLUB ELECTS NEWS OFFICERS

ANTHEM, AZ (MAY 9, 2005) — The GFWC Anthem Women's Club elected Heidi Banning its President for the club's 2005-2006 year at the club's May meeting. A resident of Anthem for over a year, Banning will direct the club as it continues its goal of making a difference in the North Valley communities.

"This is an extraordinary group of women that have accomplished a tremendous amount since the club's inception," said Banning. "I'm happy to help guide them in the many projects we will tackle in the coming year."

Future projects include a Habitat for Humanity Women Build house in Cave Creek, Salvation Army Christmas Angels, Spring Fashion Show and much more.

"I am delighted Heidi will be President," said Valerie Davis, 2004 Anthem Women's Club President. "Her leadership will continue to move this club towards bigger and better goals for the community."

Also elected were: Robin Chowaniec - Vice President, Annie Gregory – 2nd Vice President, Debbie Sheren – Treasurer, and Wendi Beason – Secretary.
