ANTHEM WOMEN'S CLUB DOMESTIC VIOLENCE DONATION DRIVE

ANTHEM, AZ (September 8, 2005) — The GFWC Anthem Women's Club will be conducting a donation drive during its Membership Info Night on October 4th to benefit area domestic violence shelters and training centers.

The Membership Info Night is open to all interested women 18 and older. It will be held at the North Valley Regional Library at 6:30 p.m. The feature speaker will be Pamela Lowe, Resource Development and Communications Officer for Habitat Humanity Desert Foothills. Lowe will present information on Habitat for Humanity's Women Build house, one of the club's projects this fall.

“Our Info Night will be a great way for women interested in community involvement to get more information about our activities and projects,” said Annie Gregory, Anthem Women's Club Vice President of Membership. “October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month and we are happy to provide our support to raise awareness of this important issue.”

Suggested items for the donation drive include: blankets, pillows, diapers, baby wipes, new and lightly used clothing for women and children, new socks and underwear and personal hygiene items.
